

I am NOT in favor of Verizon's request to delay or eliminate "portability" in the wireless industry. The Cell Phone companies have known long enough that they were to prepare for portability and now is the time to deliver. As a consumer I believe portability will increase competition and improve customer service. Please make the wireless industry keep the promise made to US citizens back in 1996...we need number portablility now. Thank you.